

International Coach Clinic at the AST 2018

European champion and Olympic medalist – the successes of both coaches, who will give a lecture at the Coach Clinic at the 29th Albert Schweitzer Tournament, are really impressive. The clinic in Viernheim (5th of April to 7th of April 2018) is organized by the Academy of the German Basketball Federation in cooperation with FIBA Europe. The speakers, Sergio Scariolo (head coach of the National Team of Spain) and Radovan Trifunović (Head Coach of the National Team of Slovenia), are well known. A third one will be announced soon.

The Coach Clinic will start on Thursday, 5th of April 2018, at 11 am with the check-in in Viernheim. After that there will be the first lesson. Then the participants get the chance to see the AST matches Japan vs. Israel and Germany vs. Argentina. On Friday there will be a mix of theory and praxis again. Following different lectures from 9 am till 16.15 the participants will watch both semifinals. At the close of the three days in Viernheim they will visit four more games on Saturday including the game for third place and the final.

The AST tickets are included in the registration fee (219 Euro). Snacks and drinks will be provided during the days in Viernheim as well as lunch on Friday. The teaching units will be held in Rudolf-Harbig-Gym in Viernheim. Participants can renew their coaching license (A and B). Furthermore there will be a cooperation for C-license owners with the basketball federation of Baden-Württemberg.

Coach Clinics registration is available on www.dbb-trainer.de.

The speakers of the Coach Clinic:

Sergio Scariolo

Sergio Scariolo (56) currently is the head coach of the Spanish National Team. He has started his coaching career in 1978 with Pejo Brescia's junior team. Six years later he got his first job as head coach at senior level, leading Italian Armed Forces' team in Italian second division while winning the Military World Championship as head coach of Italy. At the age of 29 he won the Italian Championship in his first year as the head coach of Scavolini Pesaro. After several successful seasons coaching Italian clubs, he moves to Spain in the 1997-98 season, where he coached Tau Baskonia Vitoria, Real Madrid and Unicaja Malaga, winning two Spanish Championships and a total of two Spanish Cups. He also reached several finals, including a third place in the Euroleague's 2007 Final 4.

From 2008 to 2011 Scariolo coached BC Khimki until he got an offer from EA7 Emporio Armani Mailand. From 2009 to 2012 he coached the Spanish National Team, winning the 2009 Eurobasket in Poland, the 2011 Eurobasket in Lithuania and the Silver medal at the 2012 London Olympics.

Radovan Trifunović

After the successful EuroBasket 2017 Radovan Trifunović (45) has took over a difficult task. He was appointed as the successor to Igor Kokoskov, the former Slovenian national coach, who has led his country to the titel at the EuroBasket 2017. Trifunovic' coaching career started 2008 at Helios Domzale, the team he had played for from 1996 til 2001. 2011 he went to Zlatorog Lasko. But after only a few months he left Lasko. 2014 Trifunović became head coach of the Slovenian B national team and only one year later the assistant coach of the national team. With this team he won the European Championship in 2017.
